

ABOUT THE SCHOOL OF BANKING AND MANAGEMENT

The School of Banking and Management in Cracow, founded in 1995, has been among the leaders of non-public schools of higher education for several years. It has impressive teaching facilities and wonderful teaching staff that will share their practical and theoretical knowledge with you.

Studying in Krakow is an incredible opportunity for our students to experience the culture and academic atmosphere of one of the most beautiful European cities. In addition to studying in our school, students can spend time with some of 172 840 students from 21 higher educational institutions located in Krakow, experience local sports, arts and entertainment as well as come in contact with several renowned academics. All this creates a great opportunity for intellectual growth. Our students get a solid higher education that frequently results in rapid professional success. The part-time students will find that our school offers a variety of solutions to facilitate their educational experience, such as e-learning, convenient class hours and easy access to professors. A modern information and communication infrastructure puts our school among the best higher educational institutions in Poland. To put it briefly, the School of Banking and Management is a fantastic place to join.

The school offers the following majors: Management, Finance and Accounting, and Information Technology. The school also conducts the post-graduate studies, courses and trainings according to the programs of CISCO Academy and Microsoft AATP.

OUR MISSION

The mission of our school is to equip the stakeholders with the methodological and intellectual basics for their work in business and in the modern society of knowledge based economy.

The greatest care of the school employees is our Graduates' future, including their professional career, and developing of essential professional and social skills would help them build it.

STUDY STRUCTURE

The full academic year normally comprises of 30 weeks of instruction and is divided into two approximately equal 15-week terms.

The first term starts at the beginning of October and ends at the end of January.

The second term starts mid-February and ends mid-June.

Each course has an official syllabus where students can find the contents, the description of the study program, the specific criteria and methods of assessment, the name of the lecturer.

The common assessment methods may include exams, workshops, attendance, essays, presentations. Students of annual units are usually required to sit an exam at the end of each semester or a final exam in June that can be retaken in September. Fall semester units require an exam in February that can be retaken in March. The exams of the spring semester take place in June and can be retaken in September.